Ninth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Ninth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, as set forth in an official letter from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated September 5, 1861, authorizing the raising and organizing of a Regiment of Riflemen. In accordance with the authority above mentioned, recruiting was commenced, and as soon as the Companies were raised they reported at Camp Olden, Trenton, N. J., and were immediately mustered into the service of the United States by CHARLES H. BRIGHTLY, First Lieutenant Fourth Infantry, U. S. Army. The first Company was mustered September 13th, the last Company October 15, 1861. The Regiment consisting of twelve Companies remained at Camp Olden, engaged in drilling and perfecting its organization until the 1th of December, 1861, at which time it left the State with a full complement of men. Officers, 41; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 1,115. Total, 1,159. Upon arrival at Washington, the Regiment went into Camp on the Bladensburg turnpike, about a mile from the city, and remained there until the 1th of January, 1862, at which time it was assigned to the First Brigade, (then Jesse L. Reno.) Burnside's Expedition, proceeded to Annapolis, Md., and joined the troops assembled there, awaiting transportation for service in North Carolina. On January 9th, the expedition embarked, in due time arrived at their destination, and the Regiment entered upon an active and brilliant career. Their operations were confined to the States of North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia. On the 18th of November, in compliance with General Orders, No. 126, Par. 1, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., September 6, 1862, the Regiment was reduced from twelve to ten Companies. Companies A and B were disbanded and the enlisted men transferred to different Companies in the Regiment. Company M was designated Company A. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, the greater part of the enlisted men re-enlisted in the field for three years or during the war. Those who did not re-enlist and whose term of service having expired reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by JAMES W. LORGE, Captain Second Infantry, U. S. Army, December 7, 1864. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits, with a few substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 73, Head Quarters Department of North Carolina, dated Raleigh, N. C., June 2, 1865, were mustered out at Greensboro, N. C., June 14, 1865, by A. B. SMITH, Captain 100th Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry, Commissary of Musters, Twenty-third Army Corps. The remainder were mustered out of service by the same officer, at Greensboro, N. C., July 12, 1865, in compliance with Special Orders, No. 113, Department of North Carolina, July 6, 1865.

This Regiment was first attached to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division; then to the First Brigade, Ninth Corps, Burnside's Expedition; then to the First Brigade, Second Division, Eighteenth Corps; then to the Second Brigade, Second Division, Tenth Corps; then to the First Brigade, Second Division, Tenth Corps; then to the First Brigade, Foster's Division, Department of Virginia and North Carolina; then to the Second Brigade, First Division, Eighteenth Corps; then to the Second Brigade, Second Division, Eighteenth Corps; then to the First Brigade, Second Division, Eighteenth Corps; then to the First Brigade, Carter's Division, District of Beaufort, N. C.; then to the Second Brigade, Second Division, District of Beaufort, N. C.; then to the Second Brigade, Third Division Twenty-third Corps.

Tenth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

This Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by authority issued by the War Department, Washington, D. C., direct to private individuals resident of this State, and not in any way under the control or supervision of the State authorities. Under the authority thus given, recruiting was commenced and its organization soon completed. It was then accepted by the War Department as an independent organization, having been designated the "Olden Legion." The Regiment went into camp at Beyerly, New Jersey, and from thence proceeded to Washington, December 24, 1861, with a full complement of men—Officers, 35; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 883; Total, 918; and went into camp at Camp Clay on the Bladensburg turnpike, one mile from Washington. On the 29th of January, 1862, an order was issued from the War Department, transferring the Regiment to the State authorities. It was then thoroughly re-organized, and designated the Tenth Regiment New Jersey Volunteers. On the 8th of April, 1862, Company G, which had been recruited and mustered as a Cavalry Company, was disbanded, by orders from the War Department. A Company of Infantry to fill the vacancy was recruited and forwarded to the Regiment, June 12, 1862. The greater part of the early service of the Regiment was performed in and around Washington, D. C., having been assigned there for provost duty. On the 12th of April, 1863, the Regiment was detached and proceeded to Suffolk, Va., to assist in repelling a demonstration by the enemy at that point. Again detached in July, 1863, to Philadelphia, Pa., in anticipation of a resistance to the draft. Again detached in the Fall of 1863 to the mining regions of Pennsylvania, to suppress the continuous rioting among the miners. On the 19th of April, 1864, the Regiment was assigned to active duty with the Army of the Potomac, and proceeded to Brandy Station, Va., where it was attached to the First New Jersey Brigade. Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 191, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., June 25, 1863, a very large number of the enlisted men re-enlisted for three years or during the war. Those whose term of service had expired and were with the Regiment, but did not re-enlist, were mustered out in the field at various dates and places, while those who were absent by authority reported by order at Trenton, N. J., and were mustered out by Captain JAMES W. LOUG, Second Infantry, U. S. Army. At different times during the years 1863 and 1864, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of recruits, and in 1865 by a large number of substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, when those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 23, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out at Hall's Hill, Va., June 22, 1865, by Major A. M. TAYLOR, Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Division, Sixth Army Corps. The remainder were mustered out of service by the same officer, at Hall's Hill, Va., July 1, 1865, in compliance with Special Orders, No. 158, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated June 22, 1865.

The Regiment was first attached to the Department of Washington, D. C., (provost duty); then to Cuvorin's Brigade, Peck's Division, Seventh Corps; then to the First Brigade, (First New Jersey Brigade), First Division, Sixth Corps; and at the close of the war was assigned to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Cherrisville, Va., May 19, '63; Wilderness, Va., May 5 to 7, '61; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '61; *Spottsylvania C. Eleventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Eleventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and by permission granted the Governor by the War Department, to commence the raising of a regiment in anticipation of a call soon to be issued by the President for more troops. Under the authority thus given, recruiting for the Regiment was commenced in May, 1862, and continued until the issue of a call by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers, to serve for three years or during the war. At this time about four hundred men had been recruited and were then encamped at Camp Perrine, Trenton, N. J. On the 8th of July, 1862, a telegram was received from the War Department, Washington, D. C., calling for five regiments of infantry from this State, and in compliance with this telegram and the provisions of General Orders No. 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 8, 1862, the Regiment was completed. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 18th day of August, 1862, at which time it was duly mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Perrine, Trenton, N. J., by LLEWELLYN JONES, Major, First Cavalry, U. S. Army. It left the State August 25, 1862, and reported at Washington, D. C., the day following, with a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 940. Total, 979. The Regiment remained near Washington, D. C., in the performance of various duties, until the 16th of November, when it was attached to the Brigade of General Carr, Sickles' Division, and entered upon active duty with the Army of the Potomac. At different times during the year 1864, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a few recruits and a large number of substitutes. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out near Washington, D. C., June 6, 1865, by CHARLES H. HAYES, Captain First Regiment Massachusetts Heavy Artillery, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Third Division, Second Army Corps, the remainder were transferred to the Twelfth Regiment, in accordance with Special Orders No. 142, Par. 3, Current Series, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated June 5, 1865, and were mustered out with that Regiment.

The Regiment was first attached to the First Brigade, Second Division, Third Corps; then to the First Brigade, (Second N. J. Brigade,) Fourth Division, Second Corps; then to the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4 '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Wapping Heights, Va., July 21, '63; Kelly's Ford, Va., Nov. 8, '63; Locust Grove, Va., Nov. 27, '63; Mine Run, Va., Nov. 29, '63; Wilderess, Va., May 5 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania, C. Twelfth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twelfth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under a call issued by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers, to serve for three years or during the war. This Regiment was one of the five regiments required as the quota of this State under this call, and as set forth in a telegram received from the War Department, dated July 8, 1862. The raising of the Regiment was commenced immediately, and was completed under the provisions of General Orders No. 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 8, 1862. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 14th day of September, 1862, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States, for three years, at Camp Stockton, near Woodbury, New Jersey, by Captain WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Fifth Cavalry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non Commissioned Officers and Privates, 953. Total, 992. It left the State September 7, 1862, en route for Washington, but on arrival at Baltimore, Md., and by reason of a threatened invasion of Pennsylvania and Maryland by the enemy, an order was issued assigning the Regiment for duty under General Wool, commanding the district, who ordered it to proceed immediately to Ellicott's Mills, Md. At this point the Regiment remained about three months, in the performance of provost, picket and escort duty, guarding bridges and the railroad. On the 10th of December, 1862, in compliance with orders from War Department, Washington, D. C., dated December 6, 1862, the Regiment proceeded to Washington and reported the following day, and on the 13th proceeded to join the Army of the Potomac, where it arrived on the 20th, and at once entered upon active duty. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits, substitutes and drafted men. On the 5th day of June, 1865, the officers and enlisted men of the Eleventh Regiment, not entitled to discharge under existing orders, joined the Regiment by transfer. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out at Camp near Munson's Hill, Va., June 1, 1865, by HARVEY Y. RUSSELL, Captain Tenth Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Second Division, Second Army Corps, the remainder were mustered out of service near Washington, D. C., July 15, 1865, by TIMOTHY W. KELLY, Captain 161th Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Musters, Second Division, Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac, in compliance with orders from War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C.

The Regiment was first attached to the Second Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps; then to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Second Corps; and at the close of the war was attached to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Falling Waters, Md., July 13, '63; Auburn Mills, Va., Oct. 11, '63; Bristow Station, Va., Oct. 14, '63; Blackburn's Ford, Va., Oct. 15, '63; Robinson's Tavern, Va., Nov. 27, '63; Mine Run, Va., Nov. 28, 29 and 30, '63; Morton's Ford, Va., Feb. 6, '64; Wilderness, Va., May 5 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania C. Thirteenth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirteenth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under a call issued by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers to serve for three years or during the war. This Regiment was one of the five regiments required as the quota of this State under this call, as set forth in a telegram received from the War Department, dated July 8, 1862. The raising of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and was completed under the provisions of General Orders 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 8, 1862. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 25th day of August, 1862, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States at Camp Frelinghuysen, Newark, N. J., by Lewis D. WARKINS, First Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 899. Total, 937. It left the State August 31, 1862, en route for Washington, D. C., where it arrived September 2, and at once went into camp near Fort Richardson, on Arlington Heights, Va. Here it was assigned to the Third Brigade, First Division, Twelfth Corps, Army of the Potomac, and immediately moved forward with the army, assisting in preventing the invasion of Pennsylvania and Maryland by the enemy. The Regiment was attached to the Army of the Potomac until September 24, 1863, at which time, by order of the War Department, it was detached, with the entire Twelfth Corps, for service in the West. They were then assigned to the Army of the Tennessee, and remained therewith until November, 1864, when they joined the Army of General Sherman on his march through Georgia and the Carolinas. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of large numbers of recruits. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 77, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., April 28, 1865, were mustered out near Washington, D. C., June 8, 1865, by Edward A. Wicks, Captain 150th Regiment Infantry, New York Volunteers, Assistant Commissary of Munitions, First Division, Twentieth Army Corps. The remainder were transferred to the Thirty-third Regiment, in accordance with General Orders, No. 12, Head Quarters Twentieth Army Corps, near Washington, D. C., dated June 1, 1865, and were mustered out with that Regiment.

The Regiment was first attached to the Third Brigade, First Division, Twelfth Corps; then to the Second Brigade, First Division, Twentieth Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: South Mountain, Md., Sept. 14, '62; Antietam, Md., Sept. 17, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 1 to 3, '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Rocky-face Ridge, Ga., May 8 to 11, '64; Resaca, Ga., May 15, '64; Cassville, Ga., May 16, '64; Dallas, Ga., May 25, '64; Pine Knob, Ga., June 16, '64; Kulp's Farm, Ga., June 22, '64; Kennesaw Mountain, Ga., June 27, '64; Nancy's Creek, Ga., July 18, '64; Peach Tree Creek, Ga., July 20, '64; Siege of Atlanta, Ga., July 22 to Sept. 1, '64; Sandersville, Ga., Nov. 26, '64; Near Savannah, Ga., Dec. 6, '64; Capture of Savannah, Ga., Dec. 15 to 21, '64; Avery'sboro, N. C., March 16, '65; Bentonville, N. C., March 18 to 20, '65.

Fourteenth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fourteenth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under a call issued by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers to serve for three years or during the war. This Regiment was one of the five regiments required as the quota of this State under this call, as set forth in a telegram received from the War Department, dated July 8, 1862. The raising of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and was completed under the provisions of General Orders, No. 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 8, 1862. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 26th day of August, 1862, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States at Camp Vredenburg, near Freehold, N. J., by WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Captain Fifth Regiment Cavalry, United States Army, with a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 968. Total, 1,007. It left the State September 2, 1862, en route for Washington, D. C. Upon arrival at Baltimore, Md., the Regiment was dispatched to Frederick Junction, Md., on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, to guard the bridge across Monocacy River, the advance of General Lee's army having entered Maryland. The Regiment remained in that vicinity engaged in guard duty, and assisted in protecting threatened and exposed points along the upper Potomac, until the 9th day of July, 1863, when it was assigned to the Third Army Corps, marched to the front and joined the main Army. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of recruits. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, No. 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out near Washington, D. C., June 18, 1865, by J. C. ROBINSON, Brevet Major and Assistant Commissary of Musters, Third Division, Sixth Army Corps. The remainder were transferred to the Second Regiment, in accordance with Special Orders, No. 154 Army of the Potomac, dated June 18, 1865, and were mustered out with that Regiment. The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Middle Division, Eighth Corps; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Third Corps; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Sixth Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Manassas Gap, Va., July 17, '63; Wapping Heights, Va., July 24, '63; Calpepper, Va., Oct. 12, '63; Bristow Station, Va., Oct. 14, '63; Kelly's Ford, Va., Nov. 7, '63; Brandy Station, Va., Nov. 8, '63; Locust Grove, Va., Nov. 27, '63; Mine Run, Va., Nov. 29, '63; Bullock's, Va., May 4 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania C. Fifteenth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Fifteenth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22 1861, and under a call issued by the President of the United States, dated Washington, D. C., July 7, 1862, for three hundred thousand additional volunteers, to serve for three years or during the war. This Regiment was one of the five regiments required as the quota of this State under this call, as set forth in a telegram received from the War Department, dated July 8, 1862. The raising of the Regiment was immediately commenced, and was completed under the provisions of General Orders, No. 75, War Department, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, D. C., dated July 8, 1862. The Regiment was fully organized, equipped and officered by the 25th day of August, 1862, at which time it was mustered into the service of the United States, at Camp Fair Oaks, near Flemington, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPOOLE, First Lieutenant, Fourth Infantry, U. S. Army, with a full complement of men, Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 909. Total, 947. It left the State August 27, 1862, en route for Washington, D. C., and upon arrival went into camp at Tennallytown, D. C., and at once engaged in perfecting its drill and discipline for future service. In October, 1862, the Regiment was assigned to and joined the First Brigade, First Division, Sixth Army Corps. At different times during the years 1863, 1864 and 1865, the strength of the Regiment was increased by the joining from Draft Rendezvous, Trenton, N. J., of a large number of Recruits, Substitutes and Drafted men. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the close of the war, and those coming under the provisions of General Orders, 26, Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, dated May 17, 1865, were mustered out at Hall's Hill, Va., June 22, 1865, by A. M. TYLER, Captain and Assistant Commissary of Musters, First Division, Sixth Army Corps. Those not entitled to discharge were transferred to the Second Regiment, in accordance with Special Orders, No. 157, dated Head Quarters Army of the Potomac, June 21, 1865, and were mustered out with that Regiment.

The Regiment was first attached to the First Brigade (First N. J. Brigade), First Division, Sixth Corps, and at the close of the war was assigned to what was known as the Provisional Corps, Army of the Potomac.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., May 3, '63; Salem Heights, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Franklin's Crossing, Va., June 6 to 14, '63; Gettysburg, Pa., July 2 and 3, '63; Fairfield, Pa., July 5, '63; Funktown, Md., July 10, '63; Rappahannock Station, Va., Oct. 12, '63; Rappahannock Station, Va., Nov. 7, '63; Mine Run, Va., Nov. 30, '63; Wilderness, Va., May 5 to 7, '64; Spottsylvania, Va., May 8 to 11, '64; *Spottsylvania C. On the 4th day of August, 1862, a draft of three hundred thousand Militia was ordered by the President, to be immediately called into the service of the United States, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged. Regulations for the draft were soon after received from the War Department, which provided, that an enrollment be immediately made of all able bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, and announced the quota of this State to be ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men. By a subsequent order it was directed that the draft, as ordered by the President, be made on Wednesday, the 3d day of September, between the hours of 9 o'clock, A. M., and 5 o'clock, P. M., and to be continual from day to day until completed. To meet this demand the assessors were called upon for a correct enrollment of all those liable to do military duty, and to ensure certainty, the same was required of the Brigade Commanders. The enrollment having been made, General Orders, No. 4, dated, Office of Adjutant General, Trenton, N. J., August 19, 1862, setting forth the quota required from each County, City and Township, was issued. It was also announced that volunteers in lieu of drafted men would be received up to the 1st of September. A general desire was manifested throughout the State to fill this quota by voluntary enlistment, and thus avoid the draft. This desire was promptly and energetically met by the proper State officials, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops, active measures were put forth to accomplish it, and rendezvous for their reception were established in five different localities. The result was a complete success, and on the morning of September 3d, the day appointed for commencing the draft, the War Department was officially notified that the quota required of this State, was in Camp, without a single drafted man, and their acceptance urged. The men thus raised were organized into Eleven Regiments of Infantry, and designated the Twenty-first to the Thirty first Regiments, inclusive.

Twenty-first Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-first Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 15th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Trenton, N. J., by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 966. Total, 1,004. It left the State September, 24, 1862, en route for Washington. A few days after its arrival, it proceeded to Frederick City, Md., and soon after joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Sixth Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Trenton, N. J., June 19, 1863, by JOHN P. ASH, First Lieutenant Fifth Cavalry, United States Army.

The Regiment was attached to the Third Brigade, Second Division, Sixth Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., May 2 and 3, '63; Salen Heights, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Franklin's Crossing, Va., June 5, '63.

Twenty-second Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-second Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 22d day of September, 1862, at which time, the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Trenton, N. J., by THOMAS E. MILLER, First Lieutenant Second Artillery, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 900. Total, 939. It left the State September 29, 1862, en route for Washington. Upon arrival, it was ordered into Camp, ten miles north of Georgetown, D. C., having been assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. It remained in this vicinity until about the 1st of December, when it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., and was assigned for provost duty, guarding the railroad and other duties. In January, 1863, the Regiment was assigned to the First Army Corps, and joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Trenton, N. J., June 25, 1863, by JOSEPH P. ASH, First Lieutenant Fifth Cavalry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac, then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagement: Chancellorsville, Va., May 2 and 3, '63.

Twenty-third Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-third Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 13th day of September, 1862, at which time, the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Beverly, N. J., by WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Captain Fifth Cavalry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 957. Total, 996. It left the State September 26, 1862, en route for Washington, D. C. Soon after its arrival, it was ordered to Frederick City, Md., where it remained until the 8th day of October, when it was assigned to the Sixth Army Corps, and soon after joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. While at Beverly, awaiting muster out of service, information was received of the invasion of Pennsylvania by General Lee with the Rebel Army, in strength. The command was immediately tendered to the Governor and accepted, and at once proceeded to Harrisburg, the threatened point. It remained in this vicinity until the danger had passed, when it returned to the State. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Beverly, N. J., June 27, 1863, by WASHINGTON I. NEWTON, Major Second Cavalry, United States Army.

The Regiment was attached to the First Brigade, (First New Jersey Brigade) First Division, Sixth Army Corps.
The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., May 3, '63; Salem Heights, Va., May 3 and 4, '63.

Twenty-fourth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-fourth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 16th day of September, 1862, at which time, the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Beverly, N. J., by WILLIAM B. ROYALL, Captain Fifth Cavalry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non Commissioned Officers and Privates, 946. Total, 985. It left the State September 29, 1862, en route for Washington. Upon arrival, went into Camp on East Capitol Hill, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia and was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, and began to prepare for active service. It remained in this vicinity until December 1st, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Second Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Beverly, N. J., June 29, 1863, by WALTER B. PEASE, Captain Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to the First Brigade, Ambercombie's Division, Department of Washington, D. C.; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Second Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4, '63.

Twenty-sixth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-sixth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 18th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Newark, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 38; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 960. Total, 998. It left the State September 26, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival it went into Camp on Capitol Hill, having been assigned to the Second Army Corps. It remained in this vicinity until the 1st of October, when under orders it proceeded to Hagerstown, Md., where it was assigned to the Sixth Army Corps, and with it proceeded to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Newark, N. J., June 27, 1863, by GEORGE H. BUXTON, Second Lieutenant Fifteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to General Briggs' Brigade, Second Army Corps; then to the Second Brigade, Second Division, Sixth Army Corps. The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Fredericksburg, Va., May 3, '63; Salmon Heights, Va., May 3 and 4, '63; Franklin's Crossing, Va., June 5, '63.

Twenty-seventh Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-seventh Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 19th day of September, 1862, at which time the command, consisting of eleven Companies, was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Newark, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 41; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 1,038. Total, 1,079. It left the State October 10, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival it went into Camp on Capitol Hill, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia, encamped near Alexandria and was assigned to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained at this point perfecting itself for active service, until December 1st, 1862, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Ninth Army Corps. On the 11th of February, 1863, the Regiment in connection with the Ninth Corps, left the Army of the Potomac, and proceeded to Newport News, Va., to assist in repelling a threatened invasion by the enemy, near Suffolk. It remained in this vicinity until the 19th of March, 1863, at which time by order of the War Department, it was detached with the Ninth Army Corps for service in the West. While in this Department, by an unfortunate accident the Regiment lost one officer and thirty-two enlisted men by drowning, in crossing the Cumberland river, near Somerset, Ky., on the 6th day of May, 1863. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. On arrival at Cincinnati, Ohio, June 17, 1863, information having reached the Regiment of the intended invasion of Pennsylvania by General Lee, with the Rebel Army in strength, the command was immediately tendered to the President of the United States and accepted. The Regiment remained in the vicinity of Pittsburg and Harrisburg for ten days, and until the threatened danger had passed. It then continued its return to New Jersey and was mustered out of service at Newark, N. J., July 2, 1863, by GEORGE H. BURNS, First Lieutenant Fifteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to the Second Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to the Second Brigade, First Division, Ninth Army Corps.

Twenty-eighth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-eighth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 22d day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Camp Vredenburg, near Freehold, N. J., by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 886. Total, 925. It left the State October 2, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp on Capitol Hill, but soon after crossed into Virginia, having been assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained in this vicinity perfecting itself in drill and discipline, for active service, until December 1st, 1862, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the Army of the Potomac, having been assigned to the Second Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Freehold, N. J., July 6, 1863, by CHAMBERS MCKIBBIN, Second Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to the First Brigade, Ambercrombie's Division, Defences of Washington; then to the First Brigade, Third Division, Second Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 3 and 4, '63.

Twenty-ninth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Twenty-ninth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1st, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 20th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Camp Vredenburgh, near Freehold, N. J., by FRANK D. HOWELL, First Lieutenant Seventeenth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 909. Total, 948. It left the State September 28, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp on East Capitol Hill, D. C., but soon after crossed into Virginia, and was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. It remained in this vicinity employed at various duties until the 30th of November, when under orders it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., and was assigned for provost duty, guarding the railroad and other duties. In January, the Regiment was assigned to the First Army Corps and joined the Army of the Potomac. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Freehold, N. J., June 30, 1863, by ROBERT P. KING, First Lieutenant Fifteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagements: Fredericksburg, Va., Dec. 13 and 14, '62; Chancellorsville, Va., May 2 and 3, '63.

Thirtieth Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirtieth Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy-eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 1, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 17th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was duly mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Flemington, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLL, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 972. Total, 1,011. It left the State September 30, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp near Tennallytown, D. C., and was soon after assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained in this vicinity, perfecting itself in drill and discipline for active service, until about December 1, 1862, when under orders it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., en route to the front. At this point the Regiment was assigned to duty with the Provost Guard of the Army of the Potomac, and here remained until the 10th of January, 1863, when under orders it marched to the front and joined the main army, having been assigned to the First Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Flemington, N. J., June 27, 1863, by GEORGE L. BROWNING, Second Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagement: Chancellorsville, Va., May 2 and 3, '63.

Thirty-first Regiment—Infantry—Volunteers.

The Thirty-first Regiment was organized under the provisions of an Act of Congress, approved July 22, 1861, and under existing orders governing the enrollment of troops. A draft for ten thousand four hundred and seventy eight men, to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, had been made upon the Governor of this State by the President of the United States, August 4, 1862, and soon after full instructions for conducting it were received from the War Department. The draft so ordered, was not to interfere with orders governing recruiting, and all enlistments up to September 1, 1862, would be placed to the credit of the State. A general desire manifested and expressed by the State authorities as well as by prominent citizens throughout the State to avoid the draft, gave an enthusiasm to recruiting which caused the entire quota to be raised by voluntary enlistment, and in Camp by the 3d day of September, 1862, the time appointed for commencing the draft. The organization of the Regiment was fully completed, officered and equipped by the 17th day of September, 1862, at which time the command was mustered into the service of the United States for nine months, at Flemington, N. J., by SAMUEL M. SPROLE, Captain Fourth Infantry, United States Army, having a full complement of men. Officers, 39; Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, 958. Total, 997. It left the State September 26, 1862, en route to Washington, D. C. Upon arrival went into Camp on Capitol Hill, but soon after removed to and encamped near Tennallytown, D. C., where it was assigned to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington. The Regiment remained in this vicinity, engaged in picket and other duties, until about December 1, 1862, when under orders it proceeded to Aquia Creek, Va., en route to the front. At this place the Regiment was assigned to duty with the Provost Guard of the Army of the Potomac, and was then detached and proceeded to Belle Plains, Va., to do guard and provost duty, where it remained until the early part of January, 1863, when it marched to the front and joined the main army, having been assigned to the First Army Corps. The Regiment continued its organization and remained in active service until the expiration of its term of service, when it was ordered to return to New Jersey for discharge. The Regiment was mustered out of service at Flemington, N. J., June 24, 1863, by GEORGE L. BROWNING, Second Lieutenant Fourteenth Infantry, United States Army.

The Regiment was first attached to a Provisional Brigade, Casey's Division, Defences of Washington, D. C.; then to Patrick's Brigade, Provost Guard, Army of the Potomac; then to the Third Brigade, First Division, First Army Corps.

The Regiment took part in the following engagement. Chancellorsville, Va., May 2 and 3, '63.
